

What We Do

Conduct ongoing street outreach to people who are vulnerable to- or currently in- exploitive or trafficking situations.

Connect youth with much needed resources, help them reduce harm to themselves, and provide prevention education.

Conduct HIV tests.

Support youth leadership development and empowerment through the Community Organizing Program and street outreach efforts.

Support policies that end human trafficking and exploitation. Coalition and collaborative work with fellow organizations to provide the most comprehensive services possible, and address things from a broad scope and multiple angles.

Donate Today

We believe our work is the result of our community saying "yes" through donations of time, money, and resources. If you believe the work of Prax(us) is essential to our community's health and growth, and would like to contribute to this work, please consider making a donation today.
