

BIOGRAPHY OF SETH A. GROB

Seth A. Grob graduated cum laude from Duke University in 1987. Seth received his law degree from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1991. He also studied and received a General Course of Study Degree from the London School of Economics.

Seth opened his own law firm in 2000. The firm's practice is limited to adoption, assisted reproduction, and child welfare cases. Seth represents prospective adoptive parents, foster parents and birth parents and is outside legal counsel for numerous Colorado domestic and international adoption agencies. Seth's practice includes infant and toddler adoptions, designated adoptions, interstate adoptions, stepparent adoptions, same sex adoptions, second parent adoptions, relative adoptions, disrupted adoptions, foster-parent adoptions, international adoptions and adoption subsidies. Seth also represents intended parents, egg donors, surrogates and gestational carriers in assisted reproductive technology cases. Seth has handled more than 1,500 adoption related matters and hundreds of medical assisted reproductive technology cases.

Seth has published extensively about adoption and the rights of children and foster parents. Seth actively participates on a national and state level through his association and membership with the American Academy of Adoption Attorneys, American Academy of Assisted Reproductive Technology Attorneys, the Colorado Bar, the Juvenile Law Forum of the Colorado Bar, and the Family Law Section of the Colorado Bar.

Seth has received national and state recognition for his service on behalf of children and adoptive families. In 2006, the Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute awarded Seth an Angels in Adoption. In 2006, the 1st Judicial Bar Association, State of Colorado, awarded Seth the Linda T. Palmieri Annual Award for Outstanding Service to Children. In 1996, the National Association of Counsel for Children awarded Seth the "Outstanding Legal Advocacy Award," for his legal work on behalf of children.
